

WAS TOWARDS HIGH FIGURES.

Such Was the Course of Values Last Week.

BONDS ACTIVE AND STRONG.

MARKED INCREASE IN THE VOLUME OF TRADING.

Sterling Exchange Firm—The Commodity Available Cash—Imports and Exports—Western Live Stock Markets—Money on Call 1 Per Cent—General News of the Business World.

New York, June 15.—The stock market opened irregular with Chicago Gas the feature of the dealings, 3,000 shares selling from 7 1/2 to 7 3/4 rapidly as to render it impossible to report prices consecutively. Tobacco gave way 1 per cent, but the other changes were limited to fractions. Good buying in Chicago Gas sent that stock up 2 per cent to 7 3/4, of which all but a quarter was retained at the close. The central list also displayed a rallying tendency, the Grangers advancing 1/2 to 3/4 per cent. Tobacco and Great Northern preferred 1, and Tennessee Coal 2 1/2, and do preferred 2 per cent. There were a few exceptions to the improving tendency of the market, and a few losses were recorded.

The course of values during the week was mainly in the direction of higher figures, and there was a marked increase in the volume of trading. The greater part of the advance was retained at the close. Today's bond market was active and strong, the total sales being $1,075,000. Speculation in bonds during the week was very lively, the closing prices being generally higher than at the start of the week.
